Crouch Mesa Community Center

Part of the City of Farmington's Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Affairs Department

Department Mission:

The City of Farmington's Parks, Recreation, and Cultural Affairs Department is dedicated to providing the opportunity for citizens to play, to laugh, to grow, to learn, and to engage in enriching their quality of life.

Our department practices:

Consistency & Fairness
Service & Integrity
Loyalty & Respect

As the Department of FUN we believe that, "Our Work is Your Play!"

What you can expect from us:

- Provide a safe and pleasant environment for all members of the community to participate in recreational activities
- Facilitate quality educational and recreational classes, activities, and special events for the community
- Offer a computer lab to the public to use for homework, research, and email
- Maintain a game room that offers pool, ping pong, and foosball
- Facility rules must be followed, we have the right to ask patrons to leave at any time if not complying with staff

FAQ's:

- Are you a day care service or an after-school program?
    - We are not a licensed child care facility or an after-school program. The community center is a place to come and engage in activities at your leisure. Patrons are allowed to come and go from the facility. We make every effort to interact with everyone who frequents the community center and get to know them. It is our goal to provide a safe and friendly atmosphere for all customers.
- Are food or snacks available?
    - We do not provide food and snacks at the community center. You are welcome to bring your own, we have a refrigerator and microwave for your use.
- Who can use the facility?
    - All members of the community are allowed to use the facility. You must be able to operate under limited supervision.

Stop by and see us at: 4500 Wildflower Mesa Drive, Farmington, New Mexico
Please call us with any questions: (505) 325-9850